IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

DEBUTANTE DATES ARE BEING CONSIDERED.

List Is Growing Longer and Is Largely Made Up of Residents—Personals.

Miss Margaret Worthington, daughter of Mrs. Richard Sellman Worthington, will probably be the first of the debutantes to be presented this season. The date selected is November 18, and the event will take place at the home of her uncle, Justice Alexander B. Hagner.

New names are added every few days to the list of the winter's buds, and owing to the shortness of the regular season it is likely that almost all of the entertainments which are to formally mark these events will be given before the holidays. In the cabinet circle there will be Miss Hildegard Nagel, daughter of Secretary and Mrs. Nagel, in the diplomatic corps, Miss Maria Calvo, second daughter of Minister and Mme. Calvo, and the Misses Gude, daughters of Minister and Mme. Gude, and Miss Owen, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Owen; Miss Maria Wheaton Bowers, daughter of Solicitor General and Mrs. Bowers; Miss Elizabeth Parker, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Parker, in the official set. Most of the debutantes will however come from resident circles, those already named being Miss Eudora Clover, Miss Margaret Draper, Miss Frances Noyes, Miss Laura Merriam, Miss Marie Gudet-Durfee, Miss Adelaide Heath, Miss Ruth Harper, Miss Miss Elsie Downing, Miss Sophy Johnson, Miss Marguerite Barbour, Miss Katherine Britton, Miss Stella Carusi, Miss Gladys Hinton, Miss Edith Patton, Miss Margaret Worthington, Miss Ruth Wynne and Miss Cromwell.

A number of dates are being talked over for the last two weeks of November and early December. It would seem that teas would be as numerous as usual for coming-out affairs, though the several cases large and small dances will supplement these first presentations.

The French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, who have been abroad for some months, are expected back before the end of the month.

The German ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff and their daughter are also expected back within a fortnight. Count von Wedel, who is in charge of the embassy, will take a vacation abroad during the early winter and bring back his wife with him. He has just returned to this city, where there will be several changes in the personnel of the embassy staff.

Signor Cora of the Italian embassy sailed today for Europe.

The Austrian ambassador and Baroness Hengemüller arrived yesterday at the Root villa, Lenox Mass., where they will spend the rest of the autumn. They have been abroad about six months.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, who are now at their Tuxedo estate, will entertain there by a series of musicals. The first will be given Saturday next.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer of this city is at Tuxedo Park for the autumn.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Chadwick were guests last week at the dinner given in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Chadwick, who are in the city on the vice admiral and commander of the Italian ships there for the Hudson-Fulton celebration. The party of fifty was seated at a square table in the center of which was a floral arrangement of red and white flowers and green foliage, the Italian national colors. For each woman there was a cluster of flowers fastened with long ribbons of the Italian colors, and after dinner there was a musical and some informal dancing.

Col. and Mrs. Spencer Cosby have returned from their wedding journey and are at their home, 1722 Q street.

Mrs. E. H. G. Slater and Miss Gwynne of this city were passengers aboard the steamship "Bremen" for Bremen, Germany, last night. They were accompanied by their father, Mr. Herbert, who spent the summer with her father at Newport, and returned to her English home by the same steamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Roosevelt of New York, whose country home is at the Lilies, Sayville, L. I., will be at 1327 16th street for the coming winter.

Mrs. James P. Barbour and Miss Marguerite Barbour will be established in their home on Rhode Island avenue before the week ends. Miss Barbour, whose serious illness in Paris last summer brought her traveling to a close, is yet from well and will not therefore be able to take any active part in the gayeties for the debutantes during the early season. Her debut will be postponed until much later in the winter.
